Re: Operation Glass Slipper – 2019 Princess Prom Dress Event

To: Prom Advisor

Please distribute to school counselors, school social workers, school nurses, nutrition program supervisor, and others as you see necessary.

Attached you'll find information about the 2019 Princess Event. It will be held March 9 & 10, 2019 at Southdale Mall, 2nd level below Dave & Buster's.

Appointment must be made on line starting 2/19/19.

<https://tinyurl.com/yd6drgac>

Students must bring the completed signed referral form with them to the event.

Forms must be signed by a school staff member, clergy member, counselor, or non-family member that can attest that the participant would have difficulty obtaining a prom dress and accessories without the help of Operation Glass Slipper. Forms must be signed by a parent or guardian.

Operation Glass Slipper was founded in 2007 by a local mother and daughter to distribute prom dresses and accessories to area girls who would otherwise not be able to afford the expenses of this milestone event. Operation Glass Slipper has coordinated every aspect of the donation of formal dresses, jewelry, purses, and shoes as well as organizing a special Princess Event weekend for the girls to receive their dresses and items for prom

New stock added throughout both days

1800 dresses - great selection both days.

Sincerely,

Kay Pogulis
